

Md. Golam Rabbani
Law Secretary and Former Judge

Mr. Golam Rabbani is a distinguished legal luminary and a former senior government official whose career is a testament to an unwavering commitment to justice, governance, and public service. He currently serves as a Director and also as an Advisor at the GCG Global Commerce Gateway, where he provides strategic counsel drawn from his vast experience at the highest echelons of Bangladesh's judiciary and executive branches.

His remarkable journey in public service began in 1994 with his appointment as an Assistant Judge. Demonstrating exceptional legal acumen and a profound sense of duty, he rose steadily through the judicial ranks, earning a well-deserved elevation to the position of District and Sessions Judge in 2016. His tenure presiding over courts in Chattogram provided him with invaluable hands-on experience in delivering justice at the grassroots level, solidifying his reputation as a fair, capable, and respected judicial mind.

Mr. Rabbani's expertise was further recognized when he was appointed as the Registrar General of the Bangladesh Supreme Court. In this pivotal role, he was responsible for the court's extensive administrative functions, underscoring his deep operational understanding of the nation's highest judicial institution and the broader legal system.

Transitioning to the executive branch, he served as Joint Secretary of the Law and Justice Division. Here, he played a crucial role in shaping national policy and governance frameworks. His leadership was particularly instrumental during periods of significant national challenge, where he contributed to steering the nation towards stability, assisting the people with resilience and a clear vision.

His exemplary service and integrity culminated in his appointment as the Full Secretary of the Law and Justice Division, one of the most prestigious and demanding positions within the government. This role served as a definitive testament to his expert knowledge, administrative excellence, and unwavering ethical standards.

At the GCG Global Commerce Gateway, Mr. Golam Rabbani brings this unparalleled wealth of experience to the forefront, offering clients and the firm insightful guidance on complex legal and regulatory matters, dispute resolution, and strategic governance.
